

WHAT DOES JESUS WANT FOR HIS BIRTHDAY?

*Nutritious food for
Kamala & her family*

"The staff inspired me to help the people of my community and gave me courage to live out my ministry."

After her husband was murdered in India, Kamala decided to move her family to Nepal, hoping to find land her husband had owned.

INF came and met with Kamala and encouraged her in her faith. Kamala joined the community's savings group, and enthusiastically took part in the training. With their support, Kamala began raising goats and gained new skills to provide for her family.

As well as improving her income, Kamala began to share her faith with her new neighbours. Now, in a village which previously had no believers, there is a group of thirty Christians.

Today, Kamala has food on the table, she is accepted and secure and most of all, she is excited to see faith in Jesus transforming lives amongst her friends.

Having no success they settled on a very remote patch of hillside and began to eke out a living from growing crops. Isolated and alone, each day was an endless cycle of hard work and worry, as Kamala struggled to feed her family.

It was in these days of hopelessness that a Christian field worker from Baptist World Aid's overseas partner

Jesus calls us to love our neighbour. This Christmas help more people like Kamala overcome the constraints of poverty and change their world.

Give generously using a Baptist World Aid giving envelope available in your church or donate online at www.baptistworldaid.org.au

Christmas Appeal

Share an opportunity today!

WHAT DOES JESUS WANT FOR HIS BIRTHDAY?

*Nutritious food for
Kamala & her family*

"The staff inspired me to help the people of my community and gave me courage to live out my ministry."

After her husband was murdered in India, Kamala decided to move her family to Nepal, hoping to find land her husband had owned.

INF came and met with Kamala and encouraged her in her faith. Kamala joined the community's savings group, and enthusiastically took part in the training. With their support, Kamala began raising goats and gained new skills to provide for her family.

As well as improving her income, Kamala began to share her faith with her new neighbours. Now, in a village which previously had no believers, there is a group of thirty Christians.

Today, Kamala has food on the table, she is accepted and secure and most of all, she is excited to see faith in Jesus transforming lives amongst her friends.

Having no success they settled on a very remote patch of hillside and began to eke out a living from growing crops. Isolated and alone, each day was an endless cycle of hard work and worry, as Kamala struggled to feed her family.

It was in these days of hopelessness that a Christian field worker from Baptist World Aid's overseas partner

Jesus calls us to love our neighbour. This Christmas help more people like Kamala overcome the constraints of poverty and change their world.

Give generously using a Baptist World Aid giving envelope available in your church or donate online at www.baptistworldaid.org.au

Christmas Appeal

Share an opportunity today!